

Anne Kelley

anne@artistaggie.com

www.artistaggie.com

Skills Summary:

- Extensive drawing experience, with drawing styles ranging from cartoon to photo-realism.
- Proficient in Photoshop CS4 and Word, experience with Corel Painter X, Adobe Illustrator and Power Point.
- Experience in broad range of design projects, including coloring books, wedding programs, church bulletin designs, and t-shirt designs.
- Skilled in working with clients to achieve desired product.

Professional Qualifications:

- Created t-shirt designs for college department and student group, as well as designs for various t-shirt contests.
- Served as artistic liason for college student group, coordinating creation of posters, banners and slideshow advertisement.
- Produced artwork for commissioned coloring book pages and cover.
- Produced character design for online budgeting project (currently under development).

Educational Background:

Bachelor of Arts in English, 2002 - 2006

Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas

Work Experience:

Purchase Agent ~ Purchasing/Accounts Payable, Veterinary Medical Teaching Hospital
Texas A&M University, College Station, TX June 2007 - June 2009

Processed supply orders and work orders efficiently.

Contacted vendors to resolve product and order discrepancies.

Maintained account information.

Educated customers and employees in policy revisions.

Student Worker ~ Central Receiving, Veterinary Medical Teaching Hospital,

Texas A&M University, College Station, TX May 2003 - June 2007

Processed and distributed mail to departments throughout the hospital.

Maintained records of receipt and delivery.

Handled local purchases and errands for hospital departments.

Trained other student workers.